

PLANNED GIVING INFORMATION

One of the greatest legacies you can leave our community is a planned gift, which ensures that an organization’s mission will have the resources it needs indefinitely in the future.

Giving through your will is referred to as a bequest and it can include a variety of creative ways to give, whether it is cash, a percentage of your estate, securities, or as a life insurance beneficiary.

A bequest to CNE provides the resources nonprofit organizations need to meet their missions efficiently and effectively. Your bequest will be multiplied throughout our community, serving more than 300 nonprofit members.
